

LAW ON PREVENTION OF CORRUPTION

(Official Gazette of Montenegro 53/2014 and 42/2017)

I. BASIC PROVISIONS

Scope

Article 1

This Law shall prescribe measures for prevention of conflict of public and private interest and shall regulate restrictions in the exercise of public functions, submission of reports on assets and income by public officials, protection of persons reporting threats to the public interest that indicate the existence of corruption, as well as other issues of importance to the prevention and suppression of corruption.

Definition of Corruption

Article 2

Corruption is any abuse of official, business or social position or influence that is aimed at acquiring personal gain or for the benefit of another.

Public Officials

Article 3

For the purpose of this Law, public officials shall refer to the persons elected, appointed or assigned to a post in a state authority, state administration body, judicial authority, local self-government body, local government body, independent body, regulatory body, public institution, public enterprise or other business or legal person exercising public authority, i.e. activities of a public interest or state-owned (hereinafter: authority), as well as the person whose election, appointment or assignment to a post is subject to consent by an authority, regardless of the duration of the office and remuneration.

For the purpose of this Law, state ownership shall refer to any share in a company in which the state or municipality, Old Royal Capital, or the Capital City (hereinafter: municipality) owns at least 33% of the capital.

Agency for Prevention of Corruption

Article 4

The tasks of prevention of conflict of public and private interest, restrictions in the exercise of public functions, verification of the reports on income and assets of the public officials, acting upon whistle-blower applications, whistle-blower protection, as well as other activities in accordance with this Law shall be performed by the Agency for Prevention of Corruption (hereinafter: the Agency), as an autonomous and independent body, established by the Parliament of Montenegro, in accordance with this Law.

Whistle-blower, within the meaning of this Law, shall refer to a natural or legal person filing a report on a threat to public interest that indicates the existence of corruption.

The Agency shall carry out activities of control of lobbying and control of financing of political entities and election campaigns, in accordance with the special law.

The work of the Agency shall be public.

Use of Gender-Sensitive Language

Article 5

The expressions used in this Law to denote natural persons in the masculine gender shall equally apply to the feminine gender.

Definition of terms/expressions

Article 6

The terms/expressions used in this Law shall have the following meanings:

- 1) Public interest is the material and non-material interest for the good and prosperity of all citizens on equal terms;
- 2) Private interest of a public official means ownership or other material or non-material interest of a public official or the persons related to him;

II. PREVENTION OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST IN THE EXERCISE OF PUBLIC FUNCTIONS, RESTRICTIONS IN THE EXERCISE OF PUBLIC FUNCTIONS, GIFTS, SPONSORSHIPS AND DONATIONS AND REPORTS ON INCOME AND ASSETS OF PUBLIC OFFICIALS

1. Prevention of Conflict of Interest in the Exercise of Public Functions

Conflict of Interest

Article 7

A public official shall perform his/her function in such a manner that the public interest is not subordinated to private, and without causing a conflict of interest in the exercise of public function.

The conflict of interest in the exercise of public function exists when a private interest of a public official affects or may affect the impartiality of the public official in the exercise of public function.

The Agency shall establish the existence of a conflict of interest and implement measures for prevention of conflict of interest.

Opinions about the existence of conflict of interest in the exercise of public function and restrictions in the exercise of public functions and the decisions on the violation of the provisions of this Law relating to the prevention of conflicts of interest in the exercise of public functions, restrictions in the exercise of public functions, gifts, sponsorships and donations and reports on income and property by public officials, which are issued or adopted by the Agency in accordance with this Law, shall be binding for a public official.

It shall be deemed that a public official has violated the provisions of this Law if he fails to act in accordance with the opinion of the Agency referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article and with the obligations laid down in this Law or when he/she acts in a manner that violates the prohibitions and rules prescribed by this Law and other regulations regulating the conflict of interest in areas that are regulated by these regulations.

Statement of Conflict of Interest

Article 8

If, in the authority in which he/she exercises a public function, public official participates in the discussion and decision-making in the matter in which he/she or a person related to the public official has a private interest, he/she shall inform other participants in the discussion and decision-making thereon by making a statement on the existence of private interest, prior to his/her participation in the discussion, and no later than before the beginning of the decision-making.

The obligation of making a statement referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not apply to MPs, councillors and public officials who are subject to the rules on exemption prescribed by a special law or other regulation.

The authority in which the public official exercises public function shall include the statement made by a public official referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article in the minutes and request the opinion of the Agency thereon.

In the case referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the public official shall not participate in the discussion and decision-making until the Agency issues an opinion on the existence of the conflict of interest.

If, in the case referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Agency determines the existence of conflict of interest and informs the public official and authority referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article thereon, the public official shall not participate in the discussion and decision-making and the authority shall adopt the decision on his/her exemption.

The authority shall prevent the enforcement of decisions taken contrary to paragraphs 1 to 4 of this Article and put it out of force, in accordance with the Law, and shall notify the Agency thereon.

2. Restrictions in the Exercise of Public Function

Performance of other Public Affairs

Article 9

A public official may be engaged in scientific, educational, cultural, artistic and sports activities and acquire income from copyrights, patent rights and other similar rights, intellectual and industrial property, unless specified otherwise by the law.

Membership of a public official appointed or elected in the permanent or temporary working bodies established by an authority shall not be deemed a performance of two or more public functions in terms of this Law, except for those who make decisions or participate in decision-making process.

A public official shall report to the Agency accurate and complete data on income acquired through the exercise of activities or tasks referred to in paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article.

In the case of membership in several working bodies referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, a public official may acquire income only in one working body in the given month.

Transfer of Management Rights in Companies

Article 10

A person who is the owner or founder of a company, institution or other legal person shall, within 30 days from the election, appointment or assignment to public office transfer his/her managerial rights in these entities to another legal or natural person, in order for that person to exercise these rights in their name and on behalf of the public official until the termination of his/her public office.

In the case when a company or other entity referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article has a management body in which the public official exercises his/her managerial rights as a member of the body, the transfer of managerial rights shall include the obligation of the public official to resign from the membership in the management body, in accordance with the law.

A public official shall, within five days of the date of transfer of managerial rights, notify the Agency of the person to whom he/she transferred the managerial rights and submit the evidence of the transfer of managerial rights.

The person to whom a public official has transferred managerial rights shall become a person related to the public official.

Exercise of Managerial and other Functions in Companies

Article 11

A public official shall not be president, authorized representative or member of a management body or supervisory board, or the executive director or member of management in a company.

A person who is elected, appointed or assigned to public office in terms of this Law shall, within 30 days from the election, appointment, or assignment, resign from office or function referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

Exercise of Public Functions in Public Enterprises and Public Institutions

Article 12

A public official shall not be a president or member of the management body or supervisory board, executive director, member of management of public companies, public institutions or other legal persons.

Exceptionally, a public official, other than the President of Montenegro, MP, councillor, member of the Government of Montenegro, Judges of the Constitutional Court of Montenegro, Judge, the head of public prosecution office, public prosecutor, Special Prosecutor for Suppression of Organized Crime, Corruption, Terrorism and War Crimes and Deputy Special Prosecutor, may be a president or member of the management body or supervisory board of a public enterprise, public institution or other legal person in a public enterprise, public institution or other legal person owned by the state or a municipality.

A public official who performs work in state administration and local government bodies may not perform the function of an MP or councillor.

Unless otherwise provided by a special regulation, a public official may be a president or a member of the management body or supervisory board of scientific, educational, cultural, artistic, humanitarian, sports and similar associations.

Public officials shall not acquire income or other compensation on the basis of membership in management bodies or supervisory boards referred to in paragraphs 2 and 4 of this Article.

Obligation to Resign

Article 13

A public official who, while holding the public office, accepts to perform other duties or functions referred to in Article 11, paragraph 1 or Article 12, paragraphs 1 and 3 of this Law, shall resign from public office, within 30 days from the beginning of the exercise of other functions or duties,.

Contracts on Services and Business Cooperation

Article 14

A public official shall not conclude a contract on the provision of services to a public enterprise.

A public official shall not conclude a contract on the provision of services with an authority or company that has a contractual relation or performs tasks for an authority in which the public official exercises his/her function, unless the value of these contracts is less than €1,000 per year.

The authority in which the public official exercises public function shall not conclude a contract with the company or other legal person in which the public official and a person related to him/her have a private interest.

If a public official or authority acts contrary to paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this Article, the concluded contract shall be subject to the provisions of the Law on Contracts and Torts relating to the nullity of contracts.

Restrictions upon Termination of Public Office

Article 15

For a period of two years following the termination of public office, the public official shall not:

1) Act, before the authority in which he/she exercised a public function, as a representative or attorney of a legal person, entrepreneur or international or other organization having or establishing a contractual or business relationship with this authority;

2) Establish a working relationship or business cooperation with the legal person, entrepreneur or international or other organization that acquires gain based on the decisions of the authority in which a public official has exercised function;

3) Represent a natural or legal person before the authority in which he/she exercised a public function in a case in which he participated, as a public official, in the decision-making process;

4) Perform management or audit activities in the legal person in which, at least one year prior to the termination of public function, his/her duties were related to supervisory or control activities;

5) Enter into a contract or other form of business cooperation with the authority in which he/she exercised a public function;

6) Use, for the purpose of obtaining a benefit for himself/herself or another person, or to harm another person, the knowledge and information acquired in the performance of public function, unless the knowledge and information are available to the public.

3. Gifts, Sponsorships and Donations

Prohibition on Receiving Gifts

Article 16

Public officials shall not accept money, securities or precious metal in connection with the exercise of public function, regardless of their value.

Public officials shall not accept gifts in connection with the exercise of public function, except for protocol and appropriate gifts.

Protocol gift shall mean a gift from representatives of other states or international organizations, which is given when paying or receiving a visit, or on other occasions, as well as other gifts presented in similar circumstances.

Appropriate gift shall mean a gift to the value of € 50. If, within a year, a public official receives more than one appropriate gift from the same donor, the total value of such gifts shall not exceed the amount of € 50, and if a public official receives gifts from several donors in this period, the value of such gifts shall not exceed € 100.

The prohibition or restriction referred to in paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article shall also apply to married and common-law spouses and children of public officials if they live in the same household, if the receipt of money, securities, or precious metals and gifts is in connection with the public official, or the exercise of public function. Gift value shall be calculated on the basis of its market value on the date of receipt.

Refusing Gifts

Article 17

A public official who is offered a gift that he is not allowed to accept shall refuse the offer, i.e. inform the donor that he/she cannot accept the gift.

A public official shall, within eight days of the offer under paragraph 1 of this Article, prepare a written report on the offer made and submit it to the authority in which he/she exercises a public function.

If a public official, in the case referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, was not able to refuse the gift or return the gift to the donor, he/she shall hand over the gift to the authority in which he/she exercises the public function, and the gift shall become state property or property of the municipality.

Management of Gifts

Article 18

Received gifts and their value shall be entered into the record book of gifts kept by the authority in which the public official exercises public function.

If it is determined that the appropriate gift is of greater value than the value referred to in Article 16, paragraph 4 of this Law, the gift shall be handed over to the authority in which the public official exercises public function for management and shall become state property, or property of the municipality.

Protocol gifts shall, regardless of their value, become state property, or property of the municipality.

The manner of management and use of gifts referred to in paragraph 1, 2 and 3 of this Article, the manner of keeping record books of gifts, as well as other issues relating to restrictions regarding the acceptance of gifts in connection with the exercise of public functions shall be prescribed by the state administration body in charge of anti-corruption (hereinafter: the Ministry).

Record books of Gifts

Article 19

The authority referred to in Article 18, paragraph 1 of this Law shall submit an excerpt from the record book of gifts it keeps to the Agency by the end of March of the current year for the previous year.

If the Agency determines that the actions were not in accordance with this Law, it shall inform the authority which submitted the excerpt from the records thereon.

The Agency shall prepare a catalogue of gifts that the public officials received in the previous year and publish it on its website.

Unlawful Receipt of Gifts

Article 20

Based on the knowledge that a public official has received a gift contrary to the law, the Agency shall carry out the procedure in accordance with this Law.

In cases where the Agency determines that a public official has received a gift contrary to the law, a public official shall hand over the gift, or the equivalent monetary value of the gift, to the authority where he/she performs the function, which shall thus become state property or property of the municipality.

Sponsorships and Donations to Authorities

Article 21

A public official shall not conclude a sponsorship agreement on his/her behalf.

A public official shall not conclude a sponsorship agreement or receive donations on behalf of the authority in which he/she performs a public function, which affect or could affect the legality, objectivity and impartiality of work of the authority.

A public official may ask the Agency for an opinion whether a sponsorship represents the one defined in paragraph 2 of this Article.

If a public official acts contrary to paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, the concluded contract shall be subject to the provisions of the Law on Contracts and Torts relating to the nullity of contracts.

For the purpose of this Law, sponsorship shall mean the transfer of certain material or non-material goods, movable or immovable property or other services to the authorities in exchange for oral or written references or advertising a sponsor's logo or the sponsor's product logo or other services, in accordance with the law.

For the purpose of this Law, donation shall mean the transfer without charge or unencumbered transfer of certain material or non-material goods, movable or immovable property to authorities.

Disclosure of Information on Sponsorships and Donations

Article 22

An authority shall, by the end of March of the current year for the previous year, submit to the Agency a written report on received sponsorships and donations, with a copy of the documentation related to these sponsorships or donations.

If, on the basis of the report referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, or on the basis of its own information, the Agency determines that the received sponsorships and donations affected or could affect the legality, objectivity and impartiality of work of the public authority, it shall give its opinion thereon and notify the competent authority to undertake measures within its jurisdiction, in accordance with the law.

The authority shall abrogate decisions adopted under the influence of received sponsorships or donations, in accordance with the law and shall notify the Agency thereon.

The Agency shall keep a register of sponsorships and donations referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, which contains information about the decisions referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, and shall publish it on its website.

The manner of keeping the register referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article and content of the report referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be prescribed by the Ministry.

4. Report on Income and Assets of Public Officials

Submitting the Report on Income and Assets

Article 23

The public official shall, within 30 days from assuming the function, submit to the Agency a Report on Income and Assets, as well as on assets and income of married and common-law spouse and children, if they live in the same household (hereinafter: the Report), according to the state of play on the day of election, appointment, or assignment.

The public official shall provide accurate and complete information in the Report.

During the exercise of public function, the public official shall submit the Report:

- Once a year, by the end of March of the current year for the previous year;
- In the case of changes in the Report that relate to an increase in assets of more than € 5,000, within 30 days from the date of change;

- At the request of the Agency in the case of initiation of proceedings referred to in Article 31, paragraph 1 and 2 of this Law, within 30 days from the receipt of the request, or initiation of proceedings ex officio.

In the case of termination of public function, a public official shall notify the Agency thereon and submit the Report within 30 days from termination of the function.

Public official whose office has terminated shall submit annual Report to the Agency, according to the state of play on the day of submitting the Report, for the period of two years following the termination of office.

When moving to another public function, as well as in the case of election, appointment, or assignment to another public function, the public official shall, pursuant to Article 12, paragraph 2 and 4 of this Law, notify the Agency thereon within 30 days from the date of change.

The obligation to submit Report and the procedure of verification of the data from the Report shall also apply to civil servants who are obliged to submit the Report in accordance with the special law.

Data Reported

Article 24

The Report shall contain:

1) Personal data of the public official and his/her household members referred to in Article 23, paragraph 1 of this Law, as follows: name and surname, Personal Identification Number of the Citizen, permanent or temporary residence, address, education and occupation, and in the case of public official also the father's name, mother's name and mother's maiden surname.

2) Data about the public function exercised;

3) Data on assets and income of the public official and his/her household members referred to in Article 23, paragraph 1 of this Law, and especially regarding the following:

- Ownership rights over immovable assets and lease rights over immovable assets for a term exceeding one year, in the country and abroad;

- Ownership rights over movable assets the value of which exceeds € 5,000, or that are required to be registered with the competent authorities (motor vehicles, vessels, aircrafts, etc.);

- Ownership rights over the immovable and movable assets of a company, institution or other legal person owned or established by the public official;

- Deposits in banks and other financial institutions in the country and abroad;

- Stocks and shares in a legal person or other securities;

- Cash in the amount exceeding € 5,000;

- Rights arising from copyrights, patent and similar rights, intellectual and industrial property;

- Debts (principal, interest and terms of repayment) and receivables;

- Sources and amount of income from the exercise of scientific, educational, cultural, artistic and sports activities;

- Membership in the management bodies and supervisory boards of public enterprises, public institutions and other legal persons with a share of capital owned by the state or municipality, as well as in scientific, educational, cultural, artistic, humanitarian, sports or similar associations.

For the purpose of verification of the data from the Report, the public official may give consent to the Agency to access his/her data on bank accounts and accounts of other financial institutions, in accordance with the law governing banking operations.

The consent referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall refer to the period in which the obligations of the public official are valid in accordance with this Law.

The public official shall enter the data referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article in the Report form.

The Report form shall be established by the Agency and published on its website.

Submission of Reports

Article 25

The public official shall submit the Report to the Agency electronically, and in writing.

Register of Income and Assets

Article 26

Data from the Reports shall be kept in the Register of Income and Assets of Public Officials (hereinafter: the Register), which is part of an integrated information system of the Agency.

Data from the Register shall be deleted ex officio 10 years after termination of function of the public official.

The procedure of deletion of the data from the Register may be initiated at the request of public officials as well, after expiry of the deadline referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article.

The manner of entering information from the Report to the Register, as well as the content and manner of keeping the Register shall be determined by the Ministry.

Data Available to the Public

Article 27

Data from the Register shall be published on the website of the Agency, except for information relating to:

- Personal information referred to in Article 24, paragraph 1, item 1 of this Law, except the names and surnames;
- Address of immovable assets;
- Children of public officials under the age of 16;
- Alimony and other income or payments on the basis of social and child welfare.

5. Procedure for Issuance of Opinions

Issuance of Opinion at the Request of the Public Official in Case of Suspected Conflict of Interest and in Relation to Restrictions in the Exercise of Public Functions

Article 28

When a public official suspects that he/she is in a situation in which there is a conflict of interest or restriction in the exercise of public functions, he/she shall take measures to resolve the conflict of interest or observe the restriction in accordance with the law, and shall report the suspicions of conflict of interest or restriction in the exercise of public function to the Agency, which shall issue its opinion thereon.

A public official whose function has terminated may request the Agency to issue an opinion on the existence of restrictions referred to in Article 15 of this Law.

In the request for an opinion from paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article, the public official or the public official whose function has terminated shall provide accurate information regarding the potential conflict of interest.

A public official may request the Agency to issue the opinion within a period that may not exceed 15 days from the date of submission of request, in order to exercise and protect his rights and interests, or to perform obligations in respect of which he sought an opinion.

Rule of Confidentiality of Proceedings

Article 29

The proceedings based on the request referred to in Article 28 of this Law shall be confidential.

6. The Process of Verifying Data from the Report

Article 30

The Agency shall verify the data from the Reports by comparing these data with the data collected on the property and income of public officials from authorities and legal persons possessing such data.

Authorities and legal persons referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall submit the required data and information, i.e. make available the requested documentation in accordance with the law and within the time period and in the manner determined by the Agency.

If, in the verification process, the Agency determines that the property and income of a public official and persons related to the public official exceed the actual income, at the request of the Agency, the public official shall provide, within 30 days, detailed information on the grounds of acquiring property and income.

The Agency shall carry out verification of the data from the Reports according to the annual plan of verification for a certain number of public officials and categories of public officials.

The process of verification of the data from the Report shall not be disclosed to the public.

The annual plan of verification referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article shall be adopted once a year, by the end of the current year for the following year.

A more detailed manner of verification of the data referred to in paragraph 1 and 3 of this Article shall be determined by the Rules of Procedure of the Agency.

7. The Procedure for Determining Violation of the Provisions of this Law that are related to the prevention of conflict of interest in the exercise of public functions, restrictions in the exercise of public functions, gifts, sponsorships and donations and reports on income and assets of public officials

Initiation of Proceedings

Article 31

The procedure of deciding whether a public official has violated the provisions of this Law relating to the prevention of conflict of interest in exercising public functions, restrictions in the exercise of public functions, gifts, sponsorships and donations and reports on income and property of public officials shall be initiated by the Agency, at the request of the authority in which the public official exercises or has exercised a public function, or the authority responsible for the election, appointment, or assignment of the public official, other state or municipal authority, other legal or natural person.

The Agency may initiate the procedure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article ex officio, on the basis of its own information or based on anonymous requests.

The information about the applicant referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be confidential, unless the applicant explicitly requests that such data be made available to the public or a public official that the request refers to and the authority.

Form and Content of Requests

Article 32

Requests referred to in Article 31 of this Law shall contain: name and surname of a public official, the name of the authority in which he/she performs or performed his function, the detailed facts on the violation of the provisions of this Law that are related to the prevention of conflict of interest in exercising public functions, restrictions in the exercise of public functions, gifts, sponsorships and donations and reports on income and assets of public officials, which the applicant possesses or has knowledge of, names and surnames of persons who can confirm the allegations from the request, if there are such persons or if he is familiar with them, as well as the name and surname and address or name and registered office of the applicant, if the application is not anonymous.

Requests referred to in Article 31 of this Law shall be submitted in writing, directly, by mail or electronically.

Requests may also be submitted in person to the Agency, as a transcript of a verbal statement.

Amending and Rectifying Requests

Article 33

If the request has not been made in accordance with Article 32, paragraph 1 of this Law, or is incomprehensible or does not contain sufficient facts to be acted upon, the Agency shall invite the applicant to amend or correct the request, determining a deadline for that, which may not be longer than fifteen days.

If the applicant fails to act in the manner and by the deadline specified in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Agency shall reject the request as incomplete.

Response by Public Officials

Article 34

The Agency shall request from the public official against whom the proceedings referred to in Article 31 of this Law were initiated to submit a written response to the allegations in the request, within 15 days from the receipt of the request for submission of the written response.

If the public official fails to respond in the manner and within the timeframe specified in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Agency shall continue the proceedings in accordance with this Law.

Determination of Facts and Circumstances

Article 35

The Agency shall manage the proceedings referred to in Article 31 of this Law through a person authorized by the director of the Agency (hereinafter: authorized officer).

The authorized officer shall, ex officio, obtain data and information on the facts that are necessary for the conduct of the proceedings and decision-making process, the official records of which are kept by the competent state authorities, state administration bodies and municipalities, or public enterprises, companies, institutions or other legal and natural persons.

Authorities, natural and legal persons referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall, within the period and in the manner established by the Agency, submit the requested data and information, or make available the required documentation in accordance with the law.

If the authorities, natural and legal persons referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article fail to act within the period and in the manner referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, they shall notify the Agency on the reasons without delay.

In the case referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article, the Agency shall inform the body supervising their work, and may submit a special report to the Parliament of Montenegro (hereinafter: the Parliament), or inform the public thereon.

Presentation of Evidence and Hearing

Article 36

If the authorized officer deems it necessary in order to determine the facts and circumstances that are relevant to decision-making, he/she may conduct the examination procedure ex officio.

At the request of the participants in the proceedings, the authorized officer shall conduct a hearing.

A hearing may also be conducted when an authorized officer deems it necessary in order to establish a complete and accurate state of facts relevant to decision making.

Assignment of Proceedings to the Competent Authorities

Article 37

In case of reasonable suspicion that a criminal offense has been committed that is prosecuted ex officio, the Agency shall submit to the competent public prosecutor's office without delay the request accompanied by the evidence collected in the exercise of its jurisdiction

If the Agency has information pointing to irregularities that are not within its jurisdiction, it shall submit such information to the competent authority.

The competent authorities referred to in paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article shall inform the Agency about the outcome of the proceedings.

Decision-Making

Article 38

The authorized officer shall, within 15 days from the completion of the proceedings referred to in Article 31 of this Law, submit a reasoned proposal for a decision to the director of the Agency.

Director of the Agency shall, within eight days from the date of submission of the proposal referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, decide whether a public official has violated the provisions of this Law relating to the prevention of conflict of interest in the exercise of public functions, restrictions in the exercise of public functions, gifts, sponsorships and donations and reports on income and assets of public officials.

The decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be reasoned.

Delivery of Decision

Article 39

The decision referred to in Article 38, paragraph 2 of this Law shall be delivered to the public official, the applicant, as well as the authority in which the public official exercises a public function and the body responsible for the election, appointment, or assignment of the public official when these bodies are not applicants, no later than five days from the adoption of decision.

The decision referred to in Article 38, paragraph 2 of this Law shall be published on the website of the Agency, where a decision establishing that a public official has not violated the provisions of this Law relating to the prevention of conflict of interest in exercising public functions, restrictions in the exercise of public functions, gifts, sponsorships and donations and reports on income and assets of public officials shall not disclose his name and surname and function without the consent of the public official that the decision refers to.

Finality of Decisions

Article 40

The decision referred to in Article 38, paragraph 2 of this Law shall be final, and an administrative dispute may be initiated against it.

Application of the Rules of Administrative Procedure

Article 41

The procedure for determining violation of the provisions of this Law relating to the prevention of conflict of interest in the exercise of public functions, restrictions in the exercise of public functions, gifts, sponsorships and donations and reports on income and assets of public officials shall be subject to the provisions of the law governing the administrative procedure, unless this Law provides otherwise.

Legal Effect of Decisions

Article 42

Violation of the provisions of this Law relating to the prevention of conflict of interest in the exercise of public functions, restrictions in the exercise of public functions, gifts, sponsorships and donations and reports on income and assets of public officials, as well as of special laws determining the powers of the Agency that is established in the final or final and enforceable decision shall be considered negligent discharge of public functions, about which the Agency shall inform the authority in which the public official exercises a public function and the authority responsible for the election, appointment, or assignment of the public official, for the purpose of initiating the procedure of dismissal, suspension or imposition of disciplinary measures.

The authority referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall inform the Agency about the measures taken on the basis of the decision of the Agency establishing that a public official has violated the provisions of this Law relating to the prevention of conflict of interest in the exercise of public functions, restrictions in the exercise of public functions, gifts, sponsorships and donations and reports on income and assets of public officials, as well as of special laws determining the powers of the Agency, within 60 days from the receipt of that decision, with written reasoning.

If, as a result of negligent discharge of public functions, within the meaning of paragraph 1 of this Article, a public official is dismissed, suspended, or imposed a disciplinary measure, the authority responsible for the election, appointment, or assignment of the public official shall notify the Agency thereon, within 30 days from adoption of the decision.

A public official who is dismissed for the reasons referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may not exercise a public function or duties of a civil servant for a period of four years from the date of dismissal.

The limitation in paragraph 4 of this Article shall not apply to public officials who are elected by direct vote.

The authority responsible for the election, appointment or assignment shall, before deciding on the election, appointment or assignment of a public official with the Agency, verify whether the proposed candidate was dismissed for reasons referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article in the last four years prior to the nomination, in his capacity as a public official.

Compensation of Damage

Article 43

If a violation of this Law caused damage to a legal or natural person, this person shall be entitled to compensation of the damage by filing a lawsuit in civil proceedings before the competent court, through the application of the general rule of compensation of damages.

III. WHISTLE-BLOWERS

1. Filing Applications

Whistle-blowers

Article 44

A whistle-blower who has reasonable grounds to believe that there is a threat to the public interest that indicates the existence of corruption may submit a report in accordance with this Law.

For the purpose of this Law, threatening the public interest shall mean a violation of regulations, ethical rules or the possibility of such a violation, which caused, causes or threatens to cause danger to life, health and safety of people and the environment, violation of human rights or material and non-material damage to the state or a legal or natural person, as well as an action that is aimed at preventing such a violation from being discovered.

A person that helps whistle-blowers by providing information or otherwise and any other person who can provide proof of suffering damage, because of the relation with the whistle-blower, shall be deemed a person related to the whistle-blower.

2. Proceedings Based on Applications

Submission of the Report by a Whistle-blower to Authority, Company, other Legal Person or Entrepreneur

Article 45

Whistle-blowers may submit the report referred to in Article 44, paragraph 1 of this Law to an authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur in which, to their information, there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is a threat to the public interest that indicates the existence of corruption.

The application referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be submitted in writing, in person as a transcript of a verbal statement, by mail or electronically.

Content of the Report

Article 46

The application referred to in Article 44 of this Law shall contain a description of the threats to the public interest that indicates the existence of corruption, as well as the signature and personal information of the whistle-blower, if he/she does not want to be anonymous, and, if necessary, other facts and circumstances.

Protected Information

Article 47

Information on whistle-blowers referred to in Article 46 of this Law shall be handled in accordance with the law governing data confidentiality, unless the whistle-blower explicitly requests such data to be made available to the public.

If the report filed by a whistle-blower contains classified information, the authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur to whom the report has been submitted shall handle this information in accordance with the law governing the confidentiality of data.

Actions of Authorities, Companies, other Legal Persons and Entrepreneurs

Article 48

In a procedure based on the report of the whistle-blower, an authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur referred to in Article 45, paragraph 1 of this Law shall verify the allegations of threats to the public interest indicating the existence of corruption and take measures within its jurisdiction in order to prevent the threat to public interest indicating the existence of corruption, in accordance with the law.

Designation of Persons Receiving and Acting upon the Report

Article 49

In order to carry out the procedure referred to in Article 48 of this Law, the authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur shall designate a person for receiving and acting upon the report of whistle-blowers.

If he/she determines the existence of a threat to the public interest, which indicates the existence of corruption, the person referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall implement the procedure to verify the allegations in the report of whistle-blowers and propose measures to the head of authority, or the responsible person in the legal person or entrepreneur.

A more detailed manner of action-taking referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be prescribed by the Ministry.

Notification of Measures Taken

Article 50

An authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur referred to in Article 45, paragraph 1 of this Law shall inform the whistle-blower of the measures taken on the basis of his/her report or the outcome of measures taken, within 45 days from the date of submission of the application.

Reporting Threats to Public Interest that Indicate the Existence of Corruption to the Agency

Article 51

If the whistle-blower has not been informed, or is not satisfied with the notification or the measures referred to in Article 50 of this Law, he/she may submit report on threats to the public interest that indicate the existence of corruption to the Agency.

Whistle-blowers may also submit the report on threats to the public interest that indicate the existence of corruption to the Agency without prior submission to an authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur to which the application relates.

The report referred to in paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article shall, in addition to the data referred to in Article 46 of this Law, contain information about the authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur to whom the application relates and a notification on the taken measures referred to in Article 50 of this Law, if the notification was delivered to the whistle-blower.

Opinion of the Agency

Article 52

On the basis of the procedure conducted based on the application referred to in Article 51 of this Law, the Agency shall prepare an opinion on the existence of threats to the public interest that indicate the existence of corruption.

When the Agency determines that there is a threat to the public interest that indicates the existence of corruption, the opinion shall contain a recommendation about what should be done to prevent these threats, as well as the deadline for acting on the recommendation and notifying the Agency thereon.

Acting on the Recommendation of the Agency

Article 53

An authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur to whose work the recommendation referred to in Article 52, paragraph 2 of this Law applies, shall, within the set deadline, submit a report on the actions taken to enforce the recommendation.

If the authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur does not act on the recommendation within the set deadline or fails to inform the Agency thereon, the Agency shall inform the body supervising their work, and shall submit a special report to the Parliament and inform the public thereon.

Acting ex officio

Article 54

The Agency shall initiate the procedure for determining the existence of threats to the public interest that indicates the existence of corruption ex officio, on the basis of its own information.

Actions of the Agency

Article 55

Actions referred to in Article 51 and 54 of this Law shall be subject to provisions of Articles 33 to 36 of this Law.

Protection of Whistle-blowers' Identity and Rights

Article 56

An authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur, as well as the Agency, shall handle the data referred to in Article 46 of this Law in accordance with the law governing data confidentiality and shall ensure the protection against all forms of discrimination and restrictions and denial of the whistle-blowers' rights.

Filing Criminal Charges and Assignment of Proceedings to Competent Authorities

Article 57

If, in the process of verification of allegations on a threat to public interest that indicates the existence of corruption, the head or the responsible person in the authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur, as well as the Agency, suspects that a criminal offense which is prosecuted ex officio has been committed through the threats to the public interest that indicate the existence of corruption, they shall submit the application with the gathered evidence to the competent state prosecutor without delay.

If the authorities referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, or the Agency, possess data pointing to irregularities that are not within their jurisdiction, they shall provide such data to the competent authority.

The competent authorities referred to in paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article shall inform the Agency about the outcome of proceedings.

3. Protection of Whistle-blowers

Obligations of the Agency towards the Whistle-blowers

Article 58

The Agency shall protect whistle-blowers that have reasonable grounds to believe that there are threats to the public interest that indicate the existence of corruption and that report this suspicion in good faith.

When assessing the intent referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Agency shall take into account the quality of the information provided, the degree of threats and effect that can occur due to threats to the public interest that indicate the existence of corruption.

Right to Protection

Article 59

A whistle-blower shall be entitled to protection if he/she has been inflicted damage, or if there is a possibility of damage due to submission of the report referred to in Article 44 of this Law, and in particular if:

- 1) His/her life, health and assets are at risk;
- 2) His/her employment has been terminated or his post at work has been abolished or changed, or if the description of duties and the conditions of the post at work where he/she used to work have been changed;
- 3) His/her business cooperation has been terminated through a termination of service contract or contract on business cooperation;
- 4) Disciplinary proceedings have been instituted against him/her and if a disciplinary measure has been imposed against him/her;
- 5) He/she has been prohibited from accessing certain data required for the performance of his/her working duties;
- 6) He/she has been deprived of the means for work that he/she used; or
- 7) His/her promotion and professional development has been prevented.

Request for Whistle-blower Protection

Article 60

In order to exercise the right to protection, a whistle-blower shall submit a request to the Agency (hereinafter: request for whistle-blower protection), in writing or in person as a transcript of a verbal statement.

The request for whistle-blower protection shall be submitted within six months from the date of damage or knowledge of the possibility of damage due to the application submitted by the whistle-blower.

The request for whistle-blower protection shall provide information on the applicant filing the request for protection, data from the application filed by the whistle-blower, data on the authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur, or other legal or natural person whose actions have caused the whistle-blower to suffer damage, as well as data on the damage, or the possibility of damage to the whistle-blower for filing the report.

Preliminary Examination of the Request for Whistle-blower Protection

Article 61

If a request for whistle-blower protection is untimely, the Agency shall not act and shall notify the applicant thereon.

If a request for whistle-blower protection does not include data referred to in Article 60, paragraph 3 of this Law, and the whistle-blower fails to provide justified reasons why he failed to specify all required information in the request, the Agency shall invite the whistle-blower to complete the request within eight days.

If the whistle-blower fails to act in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article, the Agency shall terminate the proceedings.

Powers of the Agency

Article 62

If the request for whistle-blower protection was filed in a timely manner and contains the information specified in Article 60, paragraph 3 of this Law, the Agency shall conduct the proceedings to verify the allegations in the request.

Once it implements the verification procedure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Agency shall determine whether any damage occurred, i.e. whether there is a possibility of damage to the whistle-blower, issuing an opinion thereon.

The Agency shall submit the opinion referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article to the authority, company, entrepreneur or other legal or natural person whose acts cause or could cause damage to the whistle-blower, within 15 days from drafting of opinion.

The Agency shall notify the applicant who filed the request for whistle-blower protection on the opinion referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article within 15 days from the drafting of opinion.

When the Agency determines that the whistle-blower was caused damage, or that there is a possibility of damage to the whistle-blower because he/she filed application report, the opinion shall also contain a recommendation about the actions to be taken to remedy or prevent the damage, as well as the deadline for the elimination of harmful consequences, or the prevention of possibility of damage.

The procedure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be subject to provisions of Articles 33 to 37 of this Law.

Acting upon Recommendations of the Agency

Article 63

An authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur to whose work the recommendation referred to in Article 62, paragraph 5 of this Law refers shall, submit a report on actions taken to implement the recommendation by the set deadline.

If the authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur does not act upon the recommendation within the set deadline, the Agency shall inform the body supervising their work, and shall submit a special report to the Parliament, and inform the public thereon.

The Burden of Proof

Article 64

When the whistle-blower's report is filed in accordance with this Law, and the act or activity referred to in Article 59 of this Law is taken after the submission of the report, the burden of proving that the act or activity is not a result of submission of the report on threats to public interest that indicate the existence of corruption is on the authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur whose actions cause damage to the whistle-blower or due to which there is a possibility of damage.

Third Parties

Article 65

When legal or factual action causing damage to the whistle-blower or a person related to the whistle-blower is not conducted directly by an authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur, but by a third party, the action shall be deemed a consequence of submission of the report if the whistle-blower or a person related to the whistle-blower makes it probable that the action of a third party is associated with the authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur to which the report related.

Assistance by the Agency

Article 66

If, as a result of the damage sustained, the whistle-blower initiates a judicial process, the Agency shall, at his request, provide the necessary expert assistance in proving the causal connection between the submission of the report on the threat to public interest that indicates the existence of corruption and the caused damage.

Termination of Damage

Article 67

If an authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur remedy the damage or prevent the damage in the course of the proceedings upon the request for whistle-blower protection, the Agency shall inform the whistle-blower thereon and set a time limit of 15 days for him to respond.

Upon receipt of the response, or the expiry of the time limit specified in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Agency shall decide whether to terminate or continue the proceedings.

Judicial Protection

Article 68

Whistle-blowers shall be entitled to judicial protection against discrimination and harassment at work based on reporting threats to the public interest that indicate the existence of corruption, which they shall exercise in accordance with the law governing the prohibition of discrimination and the law governing the prohibition of harassment at work.

4. Award for Reporting Threats to Public Interest that Indicate the Existence of Corruption.

Right of Whistle-blowers to Award

Article 69

An authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur may reward a whistle-blower who, by filing application report, contributed to preventing the threats to public interest that indicate the existence of corruption.

A whistle-blower who, by filing application report on the threats to public interest that indicate the existence of corruption, contributed to the realization of public revenue or income of a company, legal person or an entrepreneur, and if those revenues and income would not have been generated had the report not been filed, shall be entitled to a cash prize by an authority, company, other legal person or entrepreneur who generated the revenue or income.

A whistle-blower shall acquire the right to award as of the moment of realization of revenue or income referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, and if the submission of report by a whistle-blower initiated the launch and conduct of criminal proceedings that ended with a final and enforceable decision on the basis of which property is permanently confiscated, he/she shall acquire the right to an award as of the moment when the decision on confiscation of property becomes final and enforceable.

An award for whistle-blowers shall be determined on the basis of the contribution of the whistle-blower compared to the amount of revenue or income generated, or of confiscated property.

The award may not be less than 3% or more than 5% of the income or revenue generated or of property referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article.

The Procedure for Exercising the Right to Award

Article 70

In order to exercise the right to award, a whistle-blower shall submit a written request to the authority, company, legal person or entrepreneur who generated income or revenue.

The request referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be decided upon within 30 days from the date of submission.

The decision establishing the right to award shall also determine a deadline for the payment of award that may not be longer than six months.

The decision on the request referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be final, and an administrative dispute may be initiated against it.

IV. PREVENTION OF CORRUPTION

Integrity Plan

Article 71

Based on estimates of the susceptibility of certain jobs and work processes to the emergence and development of corruption and other forms of biased conduct of public officials and employees of an authority, the authority shall adopt an Integrity Plan containing measures to prevent and eliminate opportunities for the emergence and development of corruption and providing confidence of citizens in their work (hereinafter: Integrity Plan).

The Integrity Plan shall be adopted in accordance with the rules for the development and implementation of the Integrity Plan adopted by the Agency.

The Integrity Plan may be adopted by another legal person as well, and the Agency may, upon the proposal of this legal person, assess the integrity and propose recommendations for its improvement.

The costs of the integrity assessment referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall be borne by the legal person upon whose proposal the Agency conducted the assessment.

Definition of Integrity

Article 72

Integrity shall mean a legitimate, independent, impartial, accountable and transparent performance of duties based on which the public officials and other employees of an authority protect their reputation and the reputation of the authority, provide confidence of citizens in the performance of public functions and the operation of the authority and eliminate doubts about the possibility of the emergence and development of corruption.

Integrity Plan Content

Article 73

An Integrity Plan shall contain:

- An assessment of exposure of an authority to corruption and other forms of violation of integrity;

- A description of jobs and activities that are particularly susceptible to corruption and other forms of violation of integrity;
- Types of risks of corruption and other forms of violation of integrity;
- Existing control measures;
- Preventive measures for reducing the risk of corruption and other forms of violation of integrity and the deadlines for their implementation;
- Information on the person responsible for the preparation and implementation of the Integrity Plan (hereinafter: integrity manager);
- Other data, in accordance with the rules for the development and implementation of the Integrity Plan.

Integrity Manager

Article 74

Integrity Manager shall be appointed by the head or the responsible person in an authority.

The employees of an authority shall submit the necessary data and information relevant to the preparation and implementation of the Integrity Plan to the Integrity Manager, at his/her request.

Integrity Plan Transparency

Article 75

An authority shall submit the Integrity Plan to the Agency within 15 days from its adoption, in accordance with rules for the development and implementation of the Integrity Plan.

The authority shall make the Integrity Plan available to the public by publishing it on its website or in any other appropriate manner.

Integrity Plan Efficiency and Effectiveness

Article 76

Integrity Plan may be amended depending on the needs, development and interests of an authority.

An authority shall assess the efficiency and effectiveness of an Integrity Plan every second year, in accordance with the rules for the development and implementation of the Integrity Plan.

Report on the Implementation of Integrity Plan

Article 77

An authority shall submit the Report on the implementation of Integrity Plan to the Agency by 15 April of the current year for the previous year.

Based on the submitted Integrity Plans and Reports on their implementation, the Agency may give the authorities recommendations for improving the Integrity Plans.

Based on the plans, reports and recommendations referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, the Agency shall prepare a report on the adoption and implementation of Integrity Plans in the authorities.

The report referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall constitute an integral part of the annual Activity Report of the Agency.
